Owing to the absence of snow, several serious fires have caught along the Rutland railroad lines by sparks from the engines setting the grass on fire. Wednesday a grass fire threatened buildings in Shelbayan I to the state of ings in Shelburne. It was only put out after a hard fight on the part of a considerable force of men. The railroad is now employing men to burn the grass along the line and thus prevent its catching fire from engine sparks.

Chesney Stanislis, an eleven years old St. Johnsbury boy was arrested Moniay for horse stealing. The lad is charged with stealing a horse belonging to Jo-seph Bedord which was hitched in front of the Catholic church of St. Johnsbury at the time it was stolen. It was found on the South Wheelock road later in the day and was being driven by the little fellow who was arrested for taking it. The lad does not give a word of ex-

A Bennington young lady lost ber class pin some time since and search for it was in vain. A few days ago the young lady found her pin under curious circumstances. She received word from a Jeweler in Albany, N. Y., that he had a pin similar to the one she had lost and said that he had purheased it from a tramp. It seems that the tramp had picked it up on the street in Bennington and later, being in Albany had sold it to the jeweler. The pin had on it the letters A. C. P. and the figures 1905. When the jeweler bought it he took it to a druggist nearby to see if the latlatter knew what the letters meant, The fatter knew what the letters meant, The druggist liappened to be from Bennington and knew just what school the pin was an emblem of. Then another odd thing happened. That day a travelling man called on the druggist and the drummer had been in Bennington a short time before. While in Bennington he happened to be in a store one day when a young lady was remarking about having löst a class pin of this school.

The druggist then told the ieweler and the drug A Bennington young lady lost ber having lost a class pin of this school. The druggist then told the jeweler and the jeweler wrote to the lady who had lost it. The young lady promptly paid the leweler what he had paid for the pin and is now wearing it again.

Patriotism of American Women. Mary Seymour Howell.

The American woman is a constant rebuke to this nation, a reminder that this republic has not been true to its fundamental principles. She is a citizen without citizenship. She has no country, but her patriotism is equal to that of her brothers.

As you look at the stars and stripes floating in the summer breeze, remem ber that the patriotism of a woman place ed there those stripes of red which tell the world that she would give her blood for her country, and that pure white background which says that this coun-try cannot reach its suprame destiny until the purity of woman mingles in its councils; and the stars which represent the homes of the people, north, south, east, and west, true as the blue in the sky, and all bound together in a

by the Revolutionary war there were women who were soldiers. One woman ser to his aides, through the enemy's ees. She did this because no man limiteered to undertake the perilous urney. Her house was selfed by the critish and she was asked for the paper hich the enemy suspected that she car-ed; but with a woman's wit she quickly chewest and swallowed the important document. This woman was breveted colonel by General Washington. Years afterwards, there was the charming Dolly Madison, who when the White House was on fire, and her hus-band, having fied to Baltimore, sent her word to escape to him, would not leave the burning building until she had cut from its frame the painting of George Washington to carry with her in her flight. In the war of the Rebellion there were hundreds of women who endured the marching and met the cannon as bravely us men-women who were never known us women until they lay dead or dying

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our to Rivaled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for of Rutland it was reluctantly voted to its softness and glossiness; and yet the accept the resignation of their pastor of human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair arouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a lux-uriant growth of glossy, soft hair is cer-tain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dan-druff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thous-ands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists.
